Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I chose Sonic as my telephone and internet provider several years ago when I learned that would reduce my monthly rate by 50%. I was bombarded with ads from carriers who wanted to sell me cable as part of my package and charged more for basic phone coverage than Sonic. I have not regretted my choice to avoid access to all the channels in the universe and to save money for what I consider my basic needs.

I urge the FCC to avoid favoring the big carriers who bundle and charge high prices for everyone who may or may not have the income to support their expense. Keep the incentive for consumers to be able to pay for just the items they need at a fair price.

Sincerely,

Sarah Knox Miyazaki
